

Selectmen's Special Meeting, Tuesday, May 26, 1981

Selectmen spent the evening going over inventories to determine which properties will need assaying by Lew Gillmore.

It was voted at this time by Selectmen Chairman, Paul Mercier, Katherine Ring and Leslie MacNeil to endorse selling bonds in the amount of $948,000 to Farmers Home. All were in agreement.

The Sewer commission arrived and it was requested that on Monday, June 1 a time be set aside for the commissioners, lawyer and selectmen meet with George Carlson and go over all the problems which must be cleared up.