

Selectmen's Meeting, Monday, Sept. 14, 1981

Present Paul Mercier, Chairman, Leslie MacNeil, Ms. Belanger of the Messinger, Betty Shaw, Secretary

Selectmen met in closed session at 7:30 to discuss some welfare cases, personel problem and the police cheifs cases.

C. Virginia Grant was in to speak of an overdue bill for Tomicella Brothers. (Yield Tax) If it is not forthcoming, she was told to speak to Lloyd.

Fred Parsons fine was void after discussion with him.

Robert Michaels N.H. College was in to ask for a rep;from the town to give a two minute salutation to the new president at the Oct. welcome. It was agreed that Jim Dennison would make a fine rep. for the town, and as it turned out Jim was on his way in to speak to the selectmen on another matter, so they were able to obtain his "yes" while R. Michaels was in the office. Michaels also wished to invite all the town to the welcome.

George Cold went over his budget, and road problems. The Historical Society wants to hold the Turnpike Bridge in Historic condition.

Jim Dennison spoke of the peopel invited to the welcome held at the Inn for the College president in Sept. A good turn out on the part of the invited guests. The Inn quoted a price and reduced it in half after the event. (nice)

They are still in need of an alternate on the Planning Board.

Mobile Home issue was discussed. Both Jim Dennison and Lloyd Henderson feel the town is in compliance with the present law. Paul asked that the secretary mail a copy of the zoning law to NHMA council for an evaluation on town zoning laws.

B. Tenney's letter of resignation was accepted as was C. Virginia Grant's resignation from sewer and water collections. B. Shaw will collect the sewer and water bills during the regular office hours.

Bill for Heidi Sysyn returned to Hillsborough County with letter, stating the town has no responsibility in this matter.

It was determined that a plane can take off and land in the town of Antrim if it meets with the aproval of FAA

Mr. Chamberlan was voted building inspector by Paul Mercier and Leslie MacNeil. K. Ring approved when contacted.
