[REDACTED] E. Perry said it was an oversight. J. Jones saw no problem with his leaving his card in each of the remaining books in the Town Hall. (Mr. G. feels that he is being denied his rights not having his name in the book and for the selectmen to be advertising for other businesses and not his.) K. Ring and L. MacNeil saw no problem with John's suggestion. Mr. G. saw the leaving of his card in the book as better than nothing. Selectmen see the argument being one with the woman's club not the selectmen's office.

Les has set up Aug 9th to go over all the property cards and blotter book along with everyone free in the office to work along and get all records straightened. Nancy, our summer youth has been a great help straightening out records from early 1900 on. With her extra help it is the hope of all to get everything in the office up-dated.

John Jones has offered to join the Governors Council for job placements.

Registered letters to go out to all/^{known} who have failed to obtain permits.

Formula to figure out the Revenue Figures is unknown. Les drafted a letter to be sent along with the card to Dept.
