The following abatement requests were discussed and disposed of as indicated:

Paul and Gloria Planchet - denied
Martha Brown - to be reviewed
Mary Hammond - approved

The Board then discussed the following items:

The Town of Bennington's Recycling Committee had approached the Board asking if the Antrim Transfer Station would be willing to accept their waste plastics. The Board decided against this idea.

The Board approved the name of "Old Route 9" to be changed to Brown Ave. The Street name being used by the Bryer Family is currently 58 Old Hancock Road it will be changed to Pleasant Street. (A house number will be forthcoming.)

Dave Boule will research a request to have an address changed from Stacy Hill Road to Farmstead Road.

Pat Maynard from Antrim Recreation presented to the Board a request she had received from Hillsboro's Youth Athletic Association asking permission to use Antrim's Gym because of their overcrowded situation. The Board denied this request because it was felt it would present too many complications. Pat also informed the Board of some areas of the gym that need repair. Dave will handle this. The Board is still in the process of creating a list of rules for the use of the Town's Gym.

The Board also decided that Thompson Crossing will be used as a road name instead of North Bennington Road.

The Gregg Lake Bridge situation was discussed. Tom Davis is to get additional information before decision is made. The Selectmen will give Planning Board its recommendation no later than January 15, hopefully by December 31, 1994.

The Board agreed with Bart Mayer's suggestion regarding the allocation of costs for the Davy expert witness fees.

The meeting was adjourned at 10:00 p.m.

Respectfully submitted Phil Dwight.
