An applicant was chosen to be head lifeguard, which includes the duties of swim instructor, at a salary of $7.50 per hour. The position will be offered to Hannah Browning as soon as possible. Other applicants that had applied had yet to furnish the necessary documentation that they were certified lifeguards; therefore Cathy will contact Nancy Gladding at CMRC to see if any of the students in the current class may wish to be potential applicants. Those applicants who hadn't provided the necessary documentation will be notified in writing that if they submit the required paperwork and positions still exist, that they will be considered for the position.
