6:00 p.m. MEETING CALLED TO ORDER –

Easement –

Selectman Dwight informed the other Selectmen that he had spoken with Town Counsel regarding the easement to Mr. Hardwick. The Attorney stated that a formal easement could not be issued. Apparently the easement needs to be approved at town meeting. The Selectmen will have the attorney draw up a temporary easement.

Holiday / Tuition Reimbursement –

The Highway crew had inquired if they could take Monday July 3rd as their “floating holiday”. Selectman Dwight stated that the town no longer has a “floating holiday” this day was apparently replaced with Martin Luther King Day. The Highway crew was told that if they wanted that day off they could use a vacation day. After some discussion the Selectmen unanimously agreed to replace Presidents’ Day with a floating holiday effective the year 2001.

Selectman Dwight asked if the tuition reimbursement was an overall policy or per individual. After reviewing previous meeting minutes it was determined that there is no formal policy in place.

Special Town Meeting –

Selectman Dwight spoke with Ed Rowehl, chairman of the Planning Board to suggest that the Planning Board offer more publicity regarding the proposed zoning change. Selectman Dwight suggested at a minimum to send out a bulk mailing offering an information meeting prior to the meeting date of September 12, 2000.
