6:30 P.M. Parks & Rec Budget –

The Selectmen met with Sam Harding, Chairman of Parks & Rec Commission and Celeste Lunetta, Recreation Coordinator to review their proposed 2002 budget. The Selectmen have taken their proposal under advisement.

Sam Harding re-addressed the issue of purchasing a laptop for Parks & Rec use. Chairman Tenney and Selectman Penny felt that if there were still funds available within this year's budget it was not for the Selectmen to "micro-manage" their affairs. Selectman Dwight felt very strongly that this was not apart of their original budget and if they wanted such an item they should include in next year's budget. Selectman Dwight moved to not approve the purchase of a laptop for Parks & Rec. The motion was not seconded.

7:30 p.m. Library budget –

Library Trustees Sharon Dowling, Connie Kirwin and Ruth Zwirner presented their proposed 2002 budget, which the Selectmen took under advisement.
