Regional Selectmen's meeting –

Selectman Prokop attended the Regional Selectmen's meeting on March 23rd in Marlborough, NH. There was a presentation given to the group by the Municipal Association regarding the State Re-evaluation process and procedures. There was a discussion regarding some problems with how the Department of Revenue is monitoring in some towns. It was noted that Antrim has been very happy with the way D.R.A. has been monitoring. Southwest Regional Planning Commission is applying for a grant for $35,000 to study the problems that town's are having with increasing recycling costs. Other issues discussed focused on Cheshire County. The next Regional Selectmen's Meeting will be held in June in Peterborough.

Main Street Grant request –

Selectman Prokop, Senator Bob Flanders and Dave Essex went to the TEAC hearing in Concord to present on behalf of the Town the proposal and grant application for the Downtown Improvement Plan. Selectman Prokop indicated that he felt the presentation went very well and they should hear back in about 3 weeks.

Aiken House –

Selectman Prokop spoke with Dave Essex regarding putting together a “project team” to explore the necessary process in demolishing the Aiken House. Mr. Essex agreed to pursue all the requirements on his own. Once everything appears to be in order a committee will be formed.
