5. Correspondence

Chairman Bonnie Chevarella submitted her resignation as Chairman & Commissioner effective June 25, 2017 due to her moving to the town of Oxford. The Beacon Falls Conservation Commission truly thanks Bonnie for all her hard work on the Conservation Commission and wishes her the best of luck in the future.

6. Old Business

General discussion:

R. Minnick has ordered the new sign for Lantern Ridge Park and will coordinate installation with E.J. Smith Builders.

No report yet from D.E.E.P.'s fish sampling at Toby's landing.

7. New Business

General Discussion:

T. Gutierro reported on her day at Lantern Ridge Park in recognition of Connecticut Trails Day.

T. Gutierro reported neighbors of Lantern Ridge Park approached her regarding teens driving "quads" in the park.

Commissioners have noticed that some basic upkeep and weed whacking is needed at Lantern Ridge Park.

R. Minnick & B. Chevarella attended the B.S.A. Eagle Scout, Troop 138 Court of Honor in Naugatuck recently.

8. Petition of Commissioners

B. Chevarella has directed the Clerk to contact the Board of Selectmen and the B.F. Police via email regarding the "quad" issue in Lantern Ridge Park and to request increased patrols in the area.

9. Payment of Invoices

The Chairman has approved payment to the Clerk for $86.00.

10. Adjournment

The next Conservation Commission regular monthly meeting will be held Tuesday July 11, 2017 at 6:30 pm in the Beacon Falls Senior Center, 57 North Main Street.

Tonight's work session ended at 7:20 pm.

Respectfully submitted,

Peter A. Christensen

Clerk
