New Business

Snyder Drive

Chairman Bousquet stated that he was called by Zoning Officer, Brian Herb concerning Snyder Drive on last Tuesday. He stated that it is an outside corner lot. The homeowners requested a permit for an above the ground swimming pool. It would fall eight feet in the front yard. According to the regulations – all structures cannot go past the front line of the house. The excavator was already hired. No permit was received. Tuesday morning the pool installer was already installing the pool. The homeowner applied for a permit. Atty. Byrne was called. The regulations are to be followed. Chairman Bousquet visited the property. The back of the pool was fifteen feet past the front of the house. The pool was moved back to be in compliance. There have been problems with the neighbor.

The homeowners want to install a play yard in the front yard. There are no regulations regarding play yard.

Cook Lane

Chairman Bousquet stated that a permit was taken out for an 8' x 8' shed. Another shed is 12' x 20'. The regulations state that you can have no more than 19 chickens on your property. The homeowner will be raising pigeons.

Pines Bridge Industrial Park

Chairman Bousquet noted that Dr. Dey's office is coming along.

141 Beacon Falls Park

Chairman Bousquet noted that the second floor is off as was requested. A revised plan was submitted. All changes requested have been made.

Lasky Road

Chairman Bousquet noted that the deck has been built.

Quail Hollow Drive

Chairman Bousquet noted that the judge gave the property owner 15 days to clean up the property.
