

Carroll County Commissioners
Minutes
Wednesday, August 11, 2010

Commissioner Solomon made motion to go into non-public session pursuant to RSA91A; 3 for personnel.. Motion seconded by Commissioner Sorensen. Commissioners Solomon, Albee, and Sorensen in favor. So voted.

Into non-public at 10:10am.

Present: Commissioner Sorensen, Commissioner Albee, Commissioner Solomon

Others Present: Robin Reade

Having a discussion on the Agriculture programs at the high schools and utilizing their services on the farm.

Robin to Chip: You got the letter from Tom Noonan, I can respond to that if you want. The Sheriff stopped by last night and asked me to contact Tom and confirm our date for 9/1/10 at 11:00am.

Robin: In the Cybertron proposal that they originally gave us, there is a need to purchase an additional 5 SQL licenses at $22.00 each at $111.00 total.

David: Is this an annual fee?

Robin: No, it is a one-time purchase fee, but we could need to add more licenses at another time.

Chip: Did we award Cybertron the server bid?

Robin: Yes, you did. We are all set with that.

Robin: Did you make any decision on the jail chain of command information.

Chip: No, he was going to get us the information on it.

David: He did give us that information.

Chip: Is he under the gun for this decision?

Robin: No, I was doing the minutes and it reminded me of it.

David: Make sure we get it on the agenda for next week.

Commissioner Albee made a motion to come out of non-public, Commissioner Sorensen seconded. All in favor.

Meeting adjourned at 11:00am.
