New Lighthouse Opening Hours »   « Atop the Gay Head Cliffs, the Light Shines Again

August 22nd, 2015

Aquinnah Selectman Issues 10K Challenge to Island Selectmen

Selectman and runner Spencer Booker

Spencer Booker, Aquinnah Town Selectman, is challenging his island-wide colleagues to run the Gay Head 10K on Sunday, October 4th.

"If I can do it, they can too," Mr. Booker said. "If they decide not to run, they need to tell me why."

Here are a few acceptable excuses for not running:

- I have to wash my hair
- It's low tide
- It's high tide
- I have to go to America
- I might break a nail

Mr. Booker is not heartless. If you have another excuse for missing the Gay Head 10K, please enter it here:

» Enter your excuse.
(no entries yet)

"If you can't come up with a good excuse, click here to register! It's OK to designate someone else to run in your place, of course."

Comments are closed.