

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts
Executive Office of Elder Affairs
One Ashburton Place, 5th Floor
Boston, Massachusetts 02108

CHARLES D. BAKER
Governor

KARYN E. POLITO
Lieutenant Governor

ALICE F. BONNER
Secretary

Tel: (617) 727-7750
Fax: (617) 727-9368
www.mass.gov/elders

EOEA Convening on Martha's Vineyard
November 14th, 2016 - 9:30 AM - 11:30 AM
Oak Bluffs Council On Aging
21 Wamsutta Ave
Oak Bluffs, MA 02557

Agenda

1. Welcome and Introductions

2. Purpose: To share information with EOEA about COA, municipal, coalition, and other organizational activities around aging programs and services on Martha's Vineyard.
 - a. Overview of EOEA statewide initiatives
 - b. Round Robin with each organization

3. Open Discussion:
 - What are the challenges facing older adults on Martha's Vineyard?
 - What opportunities exist for healthy and productive aging?
 - What are the challenges and opportunities for the aging network?
 - How can EOEA be most helpful?
 - Who else should be part of the ongoing conversations?

4. Next Steps