

The Town of Chilmark has considered many options for buying additional land to build a new firehouse. At this time none of those options seems viable.

The Town should focus on building a new facility on land already owned by the Town. Serious consideration should be given to tearing down the current firehouse and building a new one on the current site.