Re: Human Resource Bylaws

The Human Resource Board of Chilmark (HRBC) met at a properly posted meeting on Thursday, January 5, 2017 and voted the following action:

The Board recommended that the Town amend page 5 of the Human Resource Bylaw in the following way, see the print in red for the proposed amendment:

No person employed by the Town shall be eligible to serve on the HRBC. However, there shall be an employee of the Town, who is selected annually by the employees to represent them on the HRBC as a non-voting member. This employee shall bring issues to the HRBC that are of concern to all Town employees and shall report back to the employees as needed. No employee with supervisory responsibilities of year-round employees may serve as an employee representative to the Human Resource Board.
