

SEWER AND WATER COMMISSION ORDINANCE HEARING MINUTES
OF THE TOWN OF COLCHESTER
NOVEMBER 19, 2017

Present: First Selectman Art Shilosky, Board of Selectmen Denise Mizla, Stan Soby, John Jones, Rosemary Coyle; Jim Paggioli, Michele Wyatt, Tricia Dean, Tearice Peters, Walter Cox, Chris Bourque, Steve Coyle, Dan Henderson, Rob Parlee, John Novak, Laura Stimmeyer, Laurie Robinson, Susan Dubb, Gayle Furman, Town Clerk and other citizens.

Meeting was called to order by Art Shilosky, First Selectman at 7:00 p.m.

The Town Clerk read the warning of the hearing.

Discussion:

M. Lehtinen asked for an explanation on what the ordinance entails.

J. Paggioli and S. Coyle explained the reasoning for the ordinance and what it entails.

T. Peters asked if any powers or duties would be changed.

J. Paggioli stated that no powers would be changed and that the number of required members on the commission would be reduced from what is now stated in the charter.

R. Coyle explained that it is a technical change that is in question one on the ballot for November's election.

First Selectman Shilosky explained the timeline and process for the ordinance to take effect and that if the question on the charter did not pass then the ordinance would not take effect.

Motion to adjourn made by Stan Soby and seconded by John Jones at 7:07PM.

Respectfully submitted,

Gayle Furman, Town Clerk
