1. Rob Suchecki called meeting to order at 5:05 pm.
2. Lorraine Marvin motioned to approve minutes, seconded by Gina Ebbeling.
3. No public comments.
4. Old Business
 - a. Family Craft night received positive feedback. Mostly attended by Pre-K and under. Feedback for next year is to hold it during the winter when families are looking for things to do. There was a $50 net gain for the event.
 - b. Spring clean up went well, things look beautiful.
 - c. Summer Kickoff will not happen this year.
5. New Business
 - a. Youth Leadership award- 6 youth were given $100 Amazon gift cards. This year it was determined that all 6 youth that were nominated were deserving of the award. All 6 are outstanding and dedicated.
 - b. Summer registration begins Friday, May 6th at 8:30am
 - c. Budget Referendum May 10- includes a new initiative with increased money for social work, which would allow for more hours.
 - d. Thank our partners at SERAC for donating pamphlets for Lions Club for Safety Day.
6. Linda Bromley motioned to adjourn meeting at 5:30 pm, seconded by Lorraine Marvin.
