IX. Legal

a. Retainer Agreement between Attorney Lanza and the WPCA

Mr. Enderle had provided a handout of information about other WPCA's legal services. Attorney Lanza commented that most WPCA's use their Town Attorney. Mr. Anderson stated that he likes having Attorney Lanza attend the WPCA meetings. Attorney Lanza explained that he would like to have an agreement. He will be reasonable. Attorney Lanza will put together a proposal for the next WPCA meeting. Mr. Tyler stated that Attorney Lanza is as good as any attorney and his rate is lower than most. He has no problem with Attorney Lanza getting what he deserves.

b. Sewer Ordinance Revision

Attorney Lanza had been provided with a draft of WPCA Regulations; he felt it was good but he doesn't know what all the regulations are. Attorney Lanza had provided a copy of The Town of South Windsor WPCA's Rules and Regulations. He suggested that Mr. Enderle go over it. Mr. Anderson explained that they need to replace the sewer ordinances with regulations. The only ordinance that is needed is the establishment of the Sewer Commission. Mr. Anderson feels they need to get rid of the ordinances as soon as possible. Mr. Anderson would like the Board to go through the proposed regulations which has come from the ordinances. He would like to schedule a public hearing for October.

X. Unfinished Business

IT Status

Mr. Alibozek explained that two new computers were purchased; one for the lab and one for the operators room. There was a problem with the SCADA but it was not affecting the process.

Benefit Assessment Policy

This was not discussed.

XI. New Business

Bill Sheet Review

There were not any questions.

Superintendent's Report

Mr. Enderle explained that it was a busy month and the average flow was up. Mr. Enderle reported that the CT DEEP came in for the CMOM inspection which is an EPA mandate. DEEP was impressed with the attention to detail. When leaving, Mr. Motasky remarked that "now we know what can be accomplished at our wastewater treatment facilities."

XII. Executive Session

There wasn't an Executive Session.

XIII. Adjournment

Motion: To adjourn the meeting at 8:15 p.m.
