CORRESPONDENCE:

UNH Resource Volunteers Training Program. Noted.

DES" File #2003-2623: Residential subdivision Wetland Mitigation Monitoring involving 56.74 acres conservation easement. Easement has not been filed and this is in violation of RSA 482-A. Mr. John Dibitto replied to state that they are contemplating revising plan and if this is not changed, he will record this easement and forward a copy to DES.

DES: File #2005-02342: 93 Algonquin Rd. DES had sent Mr. Daniel Regan notification that on review of incomplete files that he had not filed an application needed regarding modification of a docking facility and beach construction which had not been done (letter dated 5/10/06).

Discussion: It had been reported to the ECC that the work on the subject lot had already been done. DES's letter stated that there remained outstanding issues and that Mr. Regan was advised that said activities required an application. A motion was made by Leigh Davis and second by Shirley Green to write a letter to DES requesting an update on this issue. Motion passed. Leigh Davis will send this letter.

DES: File #2006-00142: Town of Enfield regarding fill and rip-rap of approximately 5,500 sq. feet of bank along Mascoma River to stabilize failed band. Conditions sent to town by DES. Correspondence noted by ECC.

OLD BUSINESS:

Farmer's Market and the ECC's participation: The ECC will have an informational booth at the Enfield's Farmer's Market this summer. Leigh Davis will contact Nancy Smith. Members agreed to wait until July meeting to formulate plans when more members are present.

Bicknell Brook: Alan Strickland reported that the easement with the UVLT had been signed and it was official. All members present expressed their appreciation to the citizens of Enfield for their overwhelming support.

NEW BUSINESS:

Educational Funds Available: Shirley Green is going to attend a seminar and she will be reimbursed $25.00 for her tuition. She will report to the ECC after the seminar.

Chairman's Resignation: Leigh Davis reported that because of the illness of a family member she felt that she could not give the ECC the time it so justly deserved in her role as Chairman. After discussion and the offer of support from the members to cover in her absence, Leigh Davis will continue her role as Chairman.

ADJOURNMENT: A motion was made by Leigh Davis to adjourn, Alan Strickland second and motion passed. Meeting was adjourned at 8:20 PM

I, Leigh Davis, respectfully submit these unapproved minutes on this date, June 5, 2006
