PUBLIC HEARING

On Wednesday August 30, 2017 at 7:30 pm at the Fairhaven Town Hall the Board of Selectmen of the Town of Fairhaven will hold a public hearing on an application filed with the Board on May 23, 2017 by Taylor Cultured Seafood, Inc., a Massachusetts corporation with a principal place of business at 56 Goulart Memorial Drive, Fairhaven, Massachusetts, 02719, ("the LICENSEE") for a renewal of its license to grow shellfish by means of racks, rafts, lines and floats in waters of the Commonwealth below the line of extreme low water, pursuant to General Laws, Chapter 130, section 57.

The territory subject to the application is described as that certain portion of the water column and the land under coastal waters situated in the coastal waters northwest of West Island and more particularly described within the following bounds marked by navigational buoys:

Starting at the Northwest corner at that point directly beneath lat.  $41^{\circ} 36' 76''$  long.  $70^{\circ} 50' 54''$ , and

Thence 1425 feet east to the Northeast corner at that point directly beneath lat.  $41^{\circ} 36' 72''$  long.  $70^{\circ} 50' 28''$ , and

Thence 1425 feet south to the Southeast corner at that point directly beneath lat.  $41^{\circ} 36' 52''$  long.  $70^{\circ} 50' 38''$ , and

Thence 1425 feet west to the Southwest corner at that point directly beneath lat.  $41^{\circ} 36' 56''$  long.  $70^{\circ} 50' 66''$ , and Thence 1425 feet north to the starting point, containing thirty-five (35) acres of land more or less.

The LICENSEE shall have exclusive use of the land above described and of the land within 100 feet of said racks, rafts or floats for the purpose of growing shellfish thereon, subject to such public uses of said waters and lands as are compatible with the aquacultural enterprise.
