

Chapter 2, Article III, Division 1, Sec. 2-43:

TERMS REORGANIZATION DECEMBER 2008

Sec. 1. Board of Appeals. Notwithstanding anything in section 2-62 of the Falmouth Code of Ordinances to the contrary, the terms of all regular and alternate members of the Board of Appeals serving on the date of enactment of this ordinance and all positions vacant on that date shall expire on December 31, 2008, provided that members serving on December 31, 2008, shall continue to serve until their successors are appointed and qualified. Beginning January 1, 2009, one (1) regular member shall be appointed for a one (1) year term; two (2) regular members shall be appointed for two (2) year terms; two (2) regular members shall be appointed for three (3) year terms; and two (2) alternate members shall be appointed for one (1) year terms. All appointments thereafter shall be for three (3) year terms. If as of the expiration of his or her term on December 31, 2008, a member of the Board of Appeals has served between eighteen (18) and twenty-four (24) months of his or her second term, such time shall not count as a term for the purposes of computing term limits, provided, however, that thereafter he or she is appointed to a one year term. If any member has served less than eighteen (18) months of his or her current term as of December 31, 2008, the period served shall not be considered a "term" for purposes of computing term limits.

Sec. 2. Cable Television Committee. Notwithstanding anything in section 2-82 of the Falmouth Code of Ordinances to the contrary, the terms of all members of the Falmouth Cable Television Committee serving on the date of enactment of this ordinance and all positions vacant on that date shall expire on December 31, 2008, provided that members serving on December 31, 2008, shall continue to serve until their successors are appointed and qualified. Beginning January 1, 2009, one (1) member shall be appointed for a one (1) year term; two (2) members shall be appointed for two (2) year terms; and two (2) members shall be appointed for three (3) year terms. All appointments thereafter shall be for three (3) year terms.

Sec. 3. Long Range Planning Advisory Committee. Notwithstanding anything in section 2-70 of the Falmouth Code of Ordinances to the contrary, the terms of all members of the Comprehensive Plan Advisory Committee serving on the date of enactment of this ordinance and all positions vacant on that date shall expire on December 31, 2008, provided that members serving on December 31, 2008, shall continue to serve until their successors are appointed and qualified. Beginning January 1, 2009, two (2) members shall be appointed for one (1) year terms; two (2) members shall be appointed for two (2) year terms; and three (3) members shall be appointed for three (3) year terms. All appointments thereafter shall be for three (3) year terms.

Sec. 4. Conservation Commission. Notwithstanding anything in section 2-75 of the Falmouth Code of Ordinances to the contrary, the terms of all members of the Conservation Commission serving on the date of enactment of this ordinance and all positions vacant on that date shall expire on December 31, 2008, provided that members serving on December 31, 2008, shall continue to serve until their successors are appointed and qualified. Beginning January 1, 2009, two (2) members shall be appointed for one (1) year terms; two (2) members shall be appointed for two (2) year terms; and three (3) members shall be appointed for three (3) year terms. All appointments thereafter shall be for three (3) year terms.

Sec. 5. Falmouth Harbor/Waterfront Committee. Notwithstanding anything in section 9-92 of the Falmouth Code of Ordinances to the contrary, the terms of all members of the Falmouth Harbor/Waterfront Committee serving on the date of enactment of this ordinance and all positions vacant on that date shall expire on December 31, 2008, provided that members serving on December 31, 2008, shall continue to serve until their successors are appointed and qualified. Beginning January 1, 2009, two (2) members shall be appointed for a one (1) year term; two (2) members shall be appointed for two (2) year terms; and three (3) members shall be appointed for three (3) year terms. All appointments thereafter shall be for three (3) year terms.

Sec. 6. Falmouth Trails Advisory Committee. Notwithstanding anything in section 2-136 of the Falmouth Code of Ordinances to the contrary, the terms of all members of the Falmouth Trails Advisory Committee serving on the date of enactment of this ordinance and all positions vacant on that date shall expire on December 31, 2008, provided that members serving on December 31, 2008, shall continue to serve until their successors are appointed and qualified. Beginning January 1, 2009, two (2) members shall be appointed for one (1) year terms; two (2) members shall be appointed for two (2) year terms; and three (3) members shall be appointed for three (3) year terms. All appointments thereafter shall be for three (3) year terms. If any member has served less than eighteen (18) months of his or her current term as of December 31, 2008, the period served shall not be considered a "term" for purposes of computing term limits.

Sec. 7. Parks and Community Programs Advisory Committee. Notwithstanding anything in section 2-85 of the Falmouth Code of Ordinances to the contrary, the terms of all members of the Parks and Community Programs Advisory Committee serving on the date of enactment of this ordinance and all positions vacant on that date shall expire on December 31, 2008, provided that members serving on December 31, 2008, shall continue to serve until their successors are appointed and qualified. Beginning January 1, 2009, two (2) members shall be appointed for a one (1) year term; two (2) members shall be appointed for two (2) year terms; and three (3) members shall be appointed for three (3) year terms. All appointments thereafter shall be for three (3) year terms.

Sec. 8. Planning Board. Notwithstanding anything in section 2-97 of the Falmouth Code of Ordinances to the contrary, the terms of all regular and alternate members of the Planning Board serving on the date of enactment of this ordinance and all positions vacant on that date shall expire on December 31, 2008, provided that members serving on December 31, 2008, shall continue to serve until their successors are appointed and qualified. Beginning January 1, 2009, one (1) regular member shall be appointed for a one (1) year term; two (2) regular members shall be appointed for two (2) year terms; two

(2) regular members shall be appointed for three (3) year terms; and two (2) alternate members shall be appointed for one (1) year terms. All appointments thereafter shall be for three (3) year terms. If as of the expiration of his or her term on December 31, 2008, a member of the Planning Board has served between eighteen (18) and twenty-four (24) months of his or her second term, such time shall not count as a term for the purposes of computing term limits, provided, however, that thereafter he or she is appointed to a one year term. If any regular member has served less than eighteen (18) months of his or her current term as of December 31, 2008, the period served shall not be considered a "term" for purposes of computing term limits.
