- a. Any residential lot created after August 26, 1996 shall consist of land, in the minimum square footage amount(s) prescribed below, that does not fall within Section 5.31.1 b. through f., whichever is less.
  1. At least fifty percent (50%) of the lot area, or
  2. A square footage amount of:
    - a) Residential A – 15,000
    - b) Residential B - 20,000
    - c) Residential C – 30,000
    - d) Farm and Forest – 40,000
    - e) Village Mixed Use – 15,000
    - f) Mixed Use Cluster – with sewer 7,500, without sewer 15,000
- b. For residential planned developments, at least seventy-five (75%) percent of any lot shall consist of land that does not fall within the categories of Section 5.31.1. [Adopted 8/26/96] [Amended 7/24/2000; 12/22/05]
- c. Notwithstanding the provisions in this section, lots created prior to August 26, 1996 and subsequently divided, where the division is for purposes of conveyance to a governmental or non-profit agency and the conveyance is for the sole purpose of the protection of natural resources in perpetuity, shall not be considered new lots for purposes of this section.[Amended ???]

5.38 Buffers and Setbacks Adjacent to Streams, Ponds and Wetlands [Adopted 12/18/01]

5.38.2 Applicability

- A. The requirements of this section 5.38 apply only to the construction of: 1) new single family dwellings and their accessory structures and lawns, when constructed upon lots created after the effective date of this section, whether by subdivision or otherwise; and 2) private ways which are subject to review under section 5.27. For purposes of this subsection 5.38.2, subdivision and private way applications that have had at least one substantive review before the effective date of this section shall not be subject to the requirements of this section. Alterations and enlargements of single family dwellings and their accessory buildings existing on the effective date of this section are not subject to the requirements of this section. The requirements apply to the construction of new single family dwellings and their accessory buildings, private ways, and subdivision plans in residential districts.

B. In the event that the requirements of this section overlap the requirements of Shoreland Zoning or the Highland Lake Conservation Overlay District, the requirements of Shoreland Zoning or the Highland Lake Conservation Overlay District shall apply.

C. Notwithstanding the provisions in this section, lots created prior to December 18, 2001 and subsequently divided, where the division is for purposes of conveyance to a governmental or non-profit agency and the conveyance is for the sole purpose of the protection of natural resources in perpetuity, shall not be considered new lots for purposes of this section.[Amended ????]
