

FRANCESTOWN HERITAGE COMMISSION
Minutes of Meeting September 10, 2011

Present were Frank Hanchett, Michele Ferencisk, Maureen vonRoseninge and Barbara Caskie. Excused absent was Mary Lindstrom and Betsy Hardwick. Unexcused was Becky Meatty.

Minutes of the August meeting were read, corrected and approved.

Maureen spoke with Joel McCarty from the Timber Framers and he explained that they bring people together. Requests are put on computer and interested parties will then respond.

One person from Walpole replied and will come to inspect. He also have the name of two other people to be considered. He hopes to have something in one to two weeks.

Jim vonRoseninge will do a follow up article on Hob Nob Farm.

Nothing has been heard from the Selectmen's Consultant.

We need to considering doing a fund raising event during the winter. February or March.

Check out maple sugaring in the spring.

Maureen will be doing a letter regarding fund raising to be sent out to the residents. It hasn't been determined how much money we will need.

Meeting adjourned at 9:15am.
