Public Hearing

City Council to discuss the Community Development Block Grant projects and hear public comment concerning Tiny Twisters and Headstart's relocation and renovation of the Bessie Rowell School.

Manager Dragon read the following: Community Development Block Grant projects require a progress public hearing during the projects. The City has two Community Development Block Grant Projects. They are both renovations to areas of the Bessie Rowell School.

Tiny Twisters: The Tiny Twister classroom areas were renovated and Tiny Twisters moved into their new space in June. The kitchen area is under renovation. The playground is under design and is expected to be completed next spring.

Headstart: The Headstart areas are under construction. The flooring is done, cabinets are on site and being installed and the painting is done. The Headstart classrooms should be ready for occupancy in just a week or two. The kitchen should be ready in a couple of weeks. There are other areas outside of the classrooms such as the meeting room, the corridor to the gym and the storage area off the stage that still need to be completed.

Mayor Merrifield opened the public hearing, no one came forth to speak, the public hearing was closed.

Public Comment

City Clerk Burbank advised there was a very large turnout for the election and that 240 absentee ballots were received. She advised tax bills will be going out in the mail Friday and that paying your taxes or water/sewer bill can now be done on line.

Ms. Lori Corey introduced herself and encouraged everyone to vote tomorrow. Mr. Leigh Webb also running for office encouraged everyone to get out and vote.

City Manager's Update

Manager Dragon advised concerning the Contingency Grant Line the City received $488.14 from Hannaford for the book club. She thanked Emergency Management Director Chief LaChapelle for his good job in handling Hurricane Sandy. The first night of the storm, Franklin did not experience any major damage, however, the second night a microburst came through and one home was severely damaged when a tree fell on the house. In Odell Park the roof was torn off the dugout and a tree fell on the fencing. No injuries have been reported.

Manager Dragon stated she is going to have "Perfect Attendance Awards" which will be given out at the Employee Holiday Luncheon beginning next year. The Rec Department is getting ready to begin their improvements at the Bessie Rowell Community Center in preparation for their move. They have received a $2,500 grant from PSNH and also have funds in their revolving accounts from fundraisers. They are hoping to have all improvements completed by the end of December in order to make their move.

FEMA update: Manager Dragon reported that Chief LaChapelle has been advised that the City will be able to recover the majority of the costs incurred before and after Hurricane Sandy.

The tax rate has been set at $22.22, an increase of 70 cents and the tax bills are ready to go out.

Motion to adjourn made by Councilor Clarenbach, seconded by Councilor Feener. All in favor, meeting adjourned at 7:35 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Sue E. May
