The Board of Selectmen led a meeting on the topic of "Economic Development" at Town Hall. Selectmen Philip Trapani led the effort to gather citizens and community leaders to discuss the topic of economic development and what it means for the Town of Georgetown.

There were various speakers, including:

- Mr. Matt Vincent, Chair of the Board of Selectmen
- Mr. Trapani
- Mr. Harry LaCortiglia, Planning Board
- Mr. James Lacey, The Alliance for Georgetown
- Mr. Dennis DiZolgio, The Merrimack Valley Planning Commission
- Mr. Michael Parquette, Merrimack Valley Planning Commission
- Mr. Peter Milano, Massachusetts Office of Business Development

Each speaker took a few minutes to present information relative to their particular area of expertise or involvement. There was a general discussion on each of the areas that was discussed. Mr. Trapani noted the need for the establishment of an Economic Development Committee, and he hoped that the Selectmen would be able to make appointments to such a committee sometime in September.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:30PM.
