HANOVER PLANNING BOARD

Minutes, Site Visit, Hanover Inn, March 17,2011

The Planning Board of the Town of Hanover conducted a site visit to the Hanover Inn and the adjoining Lang Building and Hopkins Center, to view the site and to hear a presentation by representatives of the applicant, Dartmouth College, for site plan review relative to a proposed renovation and expansion of the Hanover Inn at the corner of South Main and East Wheelock Streets

The site visit began at 4:00 PM in the Lobby of the Hanover Inn. Present were:

Planning Board:

Joan Garipay, Bill Dietrich, and Judith Esmay, Members; and Iain Sim, Alternate Member

Town Staff:

Jonathan Edwards

Representatives of Dartmouth College:

Ellen Arnold, Paul Olsen, Tim McNamara, Chuck Wilson, and Rod Finley

General Public:

Alex Hanson, Geoff Hansen

Tim McNamara led the group on a tour of the facility, starting in the Lobby, then to the Main Street front; inside to the Hayward Lounge, the Daniel Webster Room, and the Drake Room; through to the Hopkins Center and into the rear loading, service, and parking area and the passageway beside Eastman's Pharmacy; back through the Hopkins Center and into the Zahm Courtyard, up onto the terrace and through the portico; finishing with the second-floor conference rooms and the Wheelock Room on the third floor of the Lang Building; finally returning to the Lobby.

The site visit adjourned at 5:25 PM

Respectfully submitted,
/s/ Jonathan Edwards.
