

Hi my name is Dave Cherokee Spirit Hawk, how are you? I'm writing in sincere reference to the upcoming Pow Wow & Ceremony Event September 10 & 11th from 12:00 pm sharp – 4:30 pm. For The Annual Nipmuck Pow Wow lake Siog Park, Dug Hill Road. Holland MA.

I would cordially and most humbly invite all peoples to this wonderful annual event. To include singing, dancing, drumming, and events organized for children. There will be a varied assortment of vendors who will provide wondrous varied merchandise ranging from jewelry, crafts, clothing, art, musical items, mineral stones, herbs, and some diversified merchandise of many sorts. It is a great time and a great place for just even a day out with the family or even alone time to wind-down. There is open swimming at the Lake, and it is strongly advised to bring your own seating, and cover/shade from the elements.

It is also required that guests, bring lots of water and food for the day. There are picnic areas and barbeque posts at area and camping is available for those wanting the full experience outdoors. However there is a vendor who provides a grill for fast food service.

I look forward to meeting everyone and will be available for any concerns or information I can answer. As a member of The Cherokee, Lumbee & Seminole Nations A-li-he-li-see-da-se-dee. In English I welcome you all. Aho.

Thank you for your time and patience. I look forward to seeing you there.

Sincerely, Dave C Spirit Hawk
