Hi,

I'm not sure if the previous email trail read such that you all know that there will be a Parks and Rec Advisory Board meeting tonight in Town Hall @ 7PM.

Here's what's posted:

"The Parks & Recreation Advisory Board will meet on Tuesday, December 7, 2010, 7 pm at the Town Hall."

See you all tonight?

I recommend we start the meeting with the Conservation Commission, sitting in the audience and quietly seeing if we have a quorum to have an official meeting.

The agenda will be Conservation Commission related and we can review/approve minutes from last month after we do Conservation Commission stuff - maybe shift to the room upstairs or the hall.

Marty cannot attend.

I'll play chair if Jacqui can't make it.

Mike
