FINANCIAL REPORT - There was no financial report.

SUPERINTENDENT KUDRICK'S REPORT

BUDGET COMMITTEE MEETING – The town's Budget Committee will be meeting on 1/21/10.

MCDONALD'S – McDonald's was shut down last week because of a plugged line. Upon inspection after cleaning, it was found that the bottom of one of the pipes had rotted away. McDonald's replaced the pipe, lined the remaining ones, and had to fix the force main that was broken. The owner of the property will be getting a letter regarding the work done, problems remaining and bills for cleaning out the lines and pump station of grease.

PLANT UPDATES – The dewatering machine will arrive next week, but will not be installed until spring. The walls of the grit chamber will be poured next Tuesday, and the aeration tanks are having the steel installed.

SCHEDULED APPOINTMENTS

MAURAS PROJECT – Matt Peterson, Woodland Design Group – Mr. Peterson came before the board to inform them that 4 units of capacity that have already been paid for by Mr. Maurais will be put towards a 3 unit subdivision and extend capacity to the existing house on the property on Maurais Street. Discussion ensued regarding the placement of manholes and future development of the rest of the parcel. Mr. Peterson was informed that Mr. Maurais would now have 9 units of capacity left.
