SPECIAL MEETING
WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 17, 2001

Present: Chairman T. Young, D. Pichette-Volk, P. Rueppel, R. Holley, P. Ganley, D. Duford, M. Farrell-Town Administrator. Excused: R. Dion, M. Jolin, M. DiBitetto.

Chairman Young called the meeting to order at 7:46pm.

Chairman Young asked the Council if they wanted to appeal the decision of the Superior Court on the case of Town of Hooksett v. Sidney Baines, regarding term limits and the Sewer Commission status under the Charter.

D. Duford moved that the Town Council give authority to legal counsel to file an appeal on behalf of the Council on the Town of Hooksett v. Sidney Baines case on both issues, the first being the term limits, the second being the applicability of the Town Charter and the role of the Town Council. Motion seconded by R. Holley.

D. Duford stated that regardless of how the Council feels, the council needs a definitive ruling on these issues to set a standard.
