The board interviewed Stephen White for a vacancy on the Planning Board. A second candidate will be interviewed next week. A third, Andrew Gollub, had withdrawn his application prior to the meeting. The Planning Board was present at the meeting and convened at 7:50 p.m. Members present were Harry Hibbard, Chair; Jean Paquin, Joe Duffy, Steve Flynn, and Nathan Peyton.

Stephen White is Chief Operating Officer for Massachusetts Department of Energy Resources. He has previously worked in the Department of Environmental Protection and the Metropolitan Area Planning Council. He stated that community development and planning is something he has worked with in most of his career. He noted that rigorous planning is integral to revitalization, but small projects can also have enormous impact.

Hibbard stated that two upcoming challenges for the board are the development of the HRA property and the simplification and codification of the zoning overlay district requirements. White noted the importance of making sure that the HRA development is done correctly and satisfies the needs of the community in the areas of both economic development and open space.

The Planning Board adjourned at 8:05 p.m. It will vote to select a new member following the interview of the final candidate on July 28.

At 8:05p.m. the Board voted unanimously to adjourn.
