Oyster River Integrated Watershed Plan Stakeholder Workshop

January 24, 2013

Two Options:

Afternoon Session Time: 3:00 to 4:30 pm
Place: Lee Public Safety Complex
20 George Bennett Road
Lee, NH 03861

Evening Session Time: 7:00 to 8:30 pm
Place: Madbury Town Hall
Town Hall Road
Madbury, NH 03823

If you live or work in and around the Oyster River watershed, please join us for the first public informational workshop hosted by the partnership of the Town of Durham and UNH to discuss the proposed study elements of the future Oyster River Integrated Watershed Plan (ORIWP). On January 24th, two workshops will be held to provide an option of attending an afternoon or evening session. The afternoon workshop will be held at 3:00 pm at the Lee Public Safety Complex, 20 George Bennett Road in Lee and the evening workshop will be held at 7:00 pm at the Madbury Town Hall.

A short presentation will be provided to inform watershed residents, community officials and other stakeholders of the proposed objectives and approach of the ORIWP, which will be developed in 2013. Stakeholders will be invited to ask questions during a question and answer session or share any insight, comments or relevant information regarding watershed conditions and activities.

This integrated watershed approach seeks to combine knowledge, planning and implementation efforts with other watershed stakeholders to develop effective and sustainable solutions to reduce pollutant loading, including nitrogen, within the watershed. For more information please call David Cedarholm at the Durham Dept. of Public Works at (603)868-5578 or email dcedarholm@ci.durham.nh.us.

JANUARY ARTIST/ARTISAN of the MONTH - Carmen Villaseca-Crosbie lives in Lee with her family. She is originally from Chile, where she started to create unique pieces for home décor. Most of her crafts are painted using the Bauernmalerei technique with roots in Bavaria. It consists of hand-painted pieces such as wooden bowls and trays portraying flowers and fruits, using milk paints and eco-friendly materials. She wants to share her art with other people who might enjoy recycling their old furniture or adding some color to their homes. Check out her artwork on the Lee Public Library Facebook Page!

KNITTING TOGETHER - Tuesday, January 15, 22, 29

BOOK DISCUSSION GROUP - January 14th 7:00 pm

"State of Wonder" by Ann Patchett

"A superbly rendered novel. . . . Patchett's portrayal is as wonderful as it is frightening and foreign. Patchett exhibits an extraordinary ability to bring the horrors and the wonders of the Amazon jungle to life, and her singular characters are wonderfully drawn. . . . Powerful and captivating." (Library Journal (starred review) Copies available at the library!

WINTER SLEEPERS –

A Bit Of History

LEE NEWS From the Newmarket Advertiser October 21, 1899: An exciting runaway occurred at Wadley's Falls last week. A lady and gentleman, who were taking a carriage drive through the country, stopped by the roadside to feed the horse. The gentleman alighted, leaving the lady seated in the carriage: on removing the head-stall the horse suddenly started, running furiously a mile, to the Kirkwood place, entering an open shed in the back side, leaving the carriage behind him, with the lady still seated in it. Neither lady, man or horse were injured, but the carriage and harness did not fare as well. Submitted by Road Agent Randy Stevens, who has been researching Lee's history in his spare time. Thanks Randy!
