BITS of HISTORY from
the NEWMARKET ADVERTISER
September 29, 1900

*There have been apple buyers galore in town during a week. Some offered 40 cents per barrel, picked ones and twos, shipped to stations, minus the barrels. Most of the farmers have accepted the offer. Other buyers offered 75 cents, same conditions, except they must be barreled and headed.

*Being on the verge of senile decay I may be pardoned for reiterating that we are becoming quite famous (on paper). Not for a long time, or less, has there been items from the four corners of Lee (barring the fifth corner, Newtown Plains,) as occurred in last week's issue of "The great and only".

*Walter Thurston and daughter attended the Masonic clam bake at Dover Tuesday.

Excerpts submitted by Road Agent Randy Stevens, who has been researching Lee's history in his spare time. Thanks Randy!
