

JANUARY 13, 2014

SENIOR ADVISORY COMMITTEE MEETING

Present: Penelope Allen, Patricia Jenkins, Sharon Taylor, Jere Beckman, Shirley Walker. Visiting—Marion Kelsey.

Meeting called to order at 9:05.

Carol Dennis, select board liaison person, questions were discussed.

Old Business: (1) Every Door Direct Mail procedures were discussed. We need more information before we can use this format to mail our 500 brochures. Shirley will get more information for us. (2) Patricia will ask Denise about an address list. (3) Sharon reported that Harvey Epstein will present a program on Medicare at the Safety Complex at 2:00 PM. Several people were asked to submit questions for Harvey to focus on. (4) The discussion of the men's book club at the Library has been tabled. (5) Jere is preparing a warrant article concerning veteran's property tax credit. It is presently at the $375.00 level and we wish to increase it to $500.00. (6) Jere is concerned that the group Seniors Helping Seniors, Serving the Seacoast and Southern NH, may not be what it appears to be. It may be a form of advertisement for them and not free services. He has contacted the state Human Services Committee and has received no answer as yet.

New Business: (1) Shirley will check with Denise Duval to remove outdated information from our website. (2) Shirley will ask Nancy Ryan to join us on the committee as we may have up to five members and two alternate members.

Meeting adjourned at 9:45.
