The Commission asking reviewed the Assessor Report.

Dr. Tobin stated that he did a site walk and went into the building and all is in compliance. Attorney Hardesty stated that the Tomascak's went out of their way to make the building tie into the landscape. Thomas Tomascak is a plumber and every once in a while a delivery will come to the house. Attorney Hardesty reviewed the Regulations for requirement for the Exception Shop & Storage.

Public Comment:

1. Ed Conroy, 90 Old Mount Town Road, Bantam. Speaking about the regulations, Mr. Conroy stated the site plan shall provide harmony in the neighborhood. The 40x60 building does not fit visually or historically. Mr. Conroy provided pictures from Google Earth. Mr. Conroy stated that the building is not in line with the neighborhood. This building should be in a commercial zone and not a residential. He has lived here since 1979. Dr. Lowenthal asked if the Tomascak's provided any shrubbery or wall. Mr. Conroy stated that Mr. Tomascak did everything in their power to cut down the trees.
2. Don Newton, 36 Old Forge Hollow Road- Mr. Newton states that in the summer he does not see anything. Mr. Tomascak keeps the property very clean. He does not do work at the house.
3. Franz Reiter, 38 Old Forge Hollow Road. Mr. Reiter stated that you cannot see the building from the road. Mr. Reiter stated that the property is quiet and he does hear anything.
4. Anne Wroblewski, 22 Old Forge Hollow Road, Ms. Wroblewski is directly across the road. She stated that she felt her property is severely discounted in value due to the commercial business. It is very noisy. She is opposed to this special exception. The trees do not cover the building from her view of the building.
5. Kathy Conroy, 90 Old Mount Tom Road. Ms. Conroy is the one who called Dr. Tobin last fall due to rolls of PVC and equipment outside of the building. The wood chipper and excavator are outside in the snow. Trash removal will also be a concern – they may need a dumpster. Ms. Conroy stated that Old Forge Hollow Road is a dirt road. Children are on this road and buses. Ms. Conroy, stated that the weight F450 Dump Truck weight exceeds the regulations of a commercial truck permitted on the property. Dr. Tobin questioned a front loader on Ms. Conroy's property.

Rebuttal -

- A. Attorney Hardesty stated the truck is for personal use. Mr. Tomascak stated that it has a sander on it and he has not used it since last fall. Dr. Lowenthal asked if Mr.

Tomascak would entertain any shrubby to conceal the building providing this is a residential zone and not a commercial zone. William Conti would like to table this to March.

- Motion: William Conti made a motion to keep the public hearing open to March 16th.
- Second: Dr. Lowenthal
- Vote: 5 in favor.
1 - Curtis Barrows opposed

7. Laure – 239 West St. 2/17/15

Special Exception Restaurant & Catering.

- Time Opened: 8:54 pm
- Summary: Edward Murphy is representing his wife as the owner of the property. Mr. Murphy presented the green cards. Mr. Murphy provided a site plan, and parking requirements. Mr. Murphy would like to take down the trailer and make more parking spots for the employees. Dr. Lowenthal is questioned property lines and width of the parking spots. Mr. Murphy stated the full map is on file. Patty Laure and Martin Laure spoke about their intentions of the building. Mrs. Laure stated that the building will remain the same. The Commission discussed deliveries. Patty Laure stated they would be requested to go back to the building. Peter Losee showed a picture of a truck in the front of the building making a delivery.

Dr. Lowenthal questioned if they will have bathrooms. Patty Laure stated yes. The Commission discussed the demolition of the trailer with permits as a possible condition of approval.

Public Comment

- Lance Abbott – Would also like that the trailer be removed. Mr. Abbott also did not like the delivery issues also with Hannah's. Mr. Abbott would like to remove parking spots 5 & 6 and to have the parking spots go in the back lot. The dumpster was also an issue.

William Conti moved to close the public hearing at 9:46 pm. Peter Losee seconded it. Unanimously approved.

- Motion: William Conti make a motion to approve the Special Exception Restaurant & Catering with the condition of the removal of the trailer to the rear of the property with proper permits and a site plan be created after the trailer be removed to show parking.
- Second: Peter Losee
- Vote: 6:0 all in agreement
- Time Closed: 9:46 PM
