MINUTES

No April minutes to approve

OLD BUSINESS

1. Facilities Update: West Road Fields has been sprayed for ticks. The fields and a 30 foot perimeter were treated. Tennis court lights repaired, new breaker was installed.
2. Equipment: Diesel mower tuned up. Bobcat repaired, tuned up, and new brakes installed. West Road pump repaired.
3. Budget: Art met with the Town Finance Director on 5/14. We are currently under budget.
4. Long Range Plans: Bill to send out revised plan
5. Maintenance Building will be a wooden structure. The location of the building will be moved to the entrance closer to West Road. The builder will be reviewing the site soon.
6. Softball lights. Jim Edwards is working with those that bid. Power requirements have increased. The project is still up in the air and may not be done until after the current season. LED lights may be cheaper, since they do not require as much power.
7. Summer Playground program will be at South School. Staff has been hired there were 11 applicants this year.
8. Parking Lot Striping. West Road Parking is complete, Nelson Road will be done after school year ends. Cost for both sites is $3,522.

NEW BUSINESS

1. Soccer Club. Soccer unification is complete. Keri Stanely and Todd Ellis presenting. Soccer would like to present premier teams. Soccer has entered into a partnership with the FC Stars. They will offer 2 teams in the fall, which could expand to 6. FC Stars will use fields as a satellite from their Salem location. Field use will be controlled by Londonderry Soccer. Soccer numbers are increasing.

OTHER BUSINESS

1. None.
