MINUTES July minutes approved as written

OLD BUSINESS

1. Facilities Update: Overall in good shape, the irrigation pond is low but still plenty of water. Some brown grass where sprinklers cannot reach. Nelson Road is good.
2. Equipment update: No problems
3. Budget: Next years submission will be due in the fall. Would like to put in for an additional part-time position at Nelson Road to help Sid.
4. Field Lights at West Road is in progress. 3 of 4 poles are in last hole hit ledge and will be bringing in larger equipment. Transformer due to arrive August 15th. Field 2 has conduit run for future lights. LYSA has added 3 parking lot lights by filed 1
5. Summer Playground program registration are down approximately 15%, could be due to hot summer
6. Court repairs both Tennis and Basketball court are done. The basketball court was vandalized the first day. Person used left over paint to paint a 'W' under net. Bicycle skid makets and some scratches in court. Rock have been placed around court to keep cars off court. Vandalism in are has increased. Local Mom's Facebook page has been concerned. If parent see something they should call Police.

NEW BUSINESS

1. Nelson Playground was inspected by certified inspector. A few loose nut and bolts were found and fixed, they recommend 10 yards of bark mulch for next year.
2. Signs for "No Student Parking" have come in, Sid will install signs in 10-12 parking spaces.
3. Skate Park Project. Student painted 40% of the ramps. In the future we should consider if the town should supply additional materials if volunteers are available.

OTHER BUSINESS

1. Should we consider working with other groups to provide additional programs, ie horseback riding, kayacking? Maybe expand programs that could offer a discounted rate. Ron will bring in a program from another town.
2. Meeting Adjourned at 7:55
