MINUTES Noveber minutes approved as written

OLD BUSINESS

1. Facilities Update: All locked up, gates at West Road are locked. People can walk in, but no vehicles during the winter months.
2. Equipment update: Ok, no break downs everything is working
3. Budget: OK. Sid has requested a couple pieces of equipment. Art to find out what he wants.
4. Flag Football. Art received an email from Brooke Nadeau on 12/12. She is too busy to run the program and has told the WildCats to run the program. The WildCats will be expanding the Flag program.

NEW BUSINESS

1. Comcast did not come to town last year. They have been approved to come back in 2017. In the past they have spread bark mulch and cleanedup the playground area. They have 60-80 voluneers
2. Fall Group sanctioning. All groups reporting are within the sanctioning guidelines. Blue Lions have not responded. Glenn did not receive the email, but will check. Adult Soccer at West Road has three teams, have only heard from one team. Have not heard from the other two teams, these team have not contributed to lining of the fields. Travel scoccer purchases supplies, but the teams have to be chased for payment.

OTHER BUSINESS

1. None.
2. Meeting Adjourned at 7:46
