

Minutes of Meeting, Mamaroneck Council of the Arts

Date: Tuesday, May 12, 2009

Place: Harbor Island

In Attendance: Phyllis Gutterman; Jane Dorian; Toni Ryan; Lizzette Sotto.

Guest: Sharon Latimer-Mosley, LMC-TV

Discussed:

1. Summer Event: Movie for July 26, Despereaux. Discussion centered on whether a back-up copy was needed. Phyllis said she would buy the movie.
2. Information: Budget was passed for the Council of the Arts.
3. Report on Poetry Live: Lizzette Soto attended for the Council. George Latimer was there and proclaimed April 26 as Mary Louise Cox Day. The students' poems will be published in Sound and Town.
4. Report on meeting with Lisa Reilly of the Emelin Theatre. The Council can do events 2-4 times a year and Lisa will work with the Council. There was a discussion of the types of events, shows, and artists that would be possible. There may have to be a small cost to cover tickets, lights, security, etc. LMC can tape the shows if artists permit.
5. Mamaroneck Harbor Festival: three artists are confirmed out of 10. Artists will drop off flyers. Other items needed: table, chairs (Lizzette and Phyllis will bring) Sign – Jane will bring. Schedule to man booth: Lizzette, Phyllis, Toni and Jane will cover Saturday and Sunday.
6. Multicultural Festival in fall (October). Jane will contact festival head in CT for information. Lizzette will talk to the Chamber of Commerce and will contact Jennifer Graziano.
7. Voice of the Village newsletter: Jane will write an article on the Council and its activities.
8. Artumentary: Sharon presented an overview of her project with the Westchester Arts Council and LMC, which highlights local artists (6 artists using different mediums- sculpting, painting, music, etc.)

Next Meeting scheduled for June 9, 2009.
