

SELECTMEN'S MEETING

January 29, 1976

George Hawkins, Roland Sallada, Thomas Mansfield and Betty Hooper present.

Prior to opening the meeting at 7:30, the Selectmen went to re-assess the John Goodenough house.

Robert Todd came in to discuss Forestry Commission projects.

Almus Chancey, road agent came in to discuss road conditions and the prospects of the town purchasing a new grader.

George Hawkins left the meeting at 10:30.

The Selectmen considered the Gravel application of J. J. Cronin. The two remaining Selectmen took a vote and unanimously approved the application.