

SELECTMEN'S MEETING

March 18, 1976

Roland Sallada, ~~Thomas Mansfield~~, Oliver Andrews and Betty Hooper present.

Richard Whynall came in to discuss the fact that the Planning Board has been presented a petition to reinstate the original Interum Zoning Ordinance. The question is whether this is procedure is legally correct.

Everett Tingley and Wilfred Klardie came in relative to the previous-mentioned petition in opposition to the action of it, and wished to suggest that it not be allowed to be voted on again until five years have lapsed. They in turn wish to present a petition against a special meeting.

Mr. Klardie applied for a pistol permit.

David L. Nixon, Esq. was reappointed as Town Council.

All pending matters were taken care of.

The Selectmen voted to charge $1.00 for any ordinance requested from any out-of-town person and will charge $2.50 for large Town maps and 25¢ for the small maps.
