

SPECIAL MEETING

Wed. Jan. 12, 1977

Roland Sallada and Thomas Mansfield, with Betty Hooper present, met with Milton Elliott at 9:30 am at the Selectmen's Office regarding his additional insurance on vehicles to remove gravel. Mr. Elliott's $1,000 bond was discussed as to the aspect of how to handle the deposit for the town.

Milton Elliott paid to the Secretary, $500 in cash to be held until a decision is agreed upon as to how the money will be handled for this half payment of his bond.

Mrs. Hobson on Molly Stark Lane, reported that the snow plow pushed snow so close to her house as to break windows on the road side. Mr. Sallada contacted her, and agreed that the town would take the responsibility of repairs.

SPECIAL MEETING

Jan. 17, 1977

The Board of Selectmen met with George Houghton at 7:00 pm to discuss the plowing of driveways, as a follow-up of letters sent from this office dated January 14, 1977. Mr. Houghton plows his own driveway plus that of Carl Eiermann and Mr. Kirsch. Mr. Houghton could find no reason for criticism on his part and informed that he will continue in the same manner as before. Mr. Eiermann promised to take full responsibility for conditions regarding his driveway.
