

SELECTMEN'S MEETING

February 21, 1977

The Selectmen re-appraised the Daniel Zwillinger property prior to the regular meeting.

Present were Roland Sallada, Thomas Mansfield, Oliver Andrews and Betty Hooper.

Sue Ann & Everett Tingley returned to meet with the Selectmen for further discussion on the petition which they had presented to the Board. The following decisions were voted unanimously on each petition by the Selectmen on which petition would appear on the warrant: Nos. 1 and 2 will not appear on the warrant; #3 - with changing of phrasing, will appear on warrant; #4 will appear on warrant; #5 - will not appear on warrant since it will appear on the ballot.

Mr. Tingley borrowed the letters from counsel and he will have copies made and will return them soon.

Kenneth Barss came in to discuss the three options involved in the procedure of obtaining land next to the new fire house owned by Leon Daniels.

Letters pertaining to junk cars were mailed to James Ryan and Joseph Trimbur.

The Town Warrant and Budget were posted on February 21, and the last of the Town Report material was delivered to the printer on February 21.
