May 12, 1983

As a prelude to the business meeting, the Selectmen and office staff held a surprise 65th birthday party at 6:30 pm for Betty Hooper, secretary to Selectmen. She was given a beautiful bouquet of flowers and Sandy Gendron made a cake which was enjoyed along with a bottle of champagne.

At 7:15, the Selectmen met with Paul Genovese and David Sheffield, agents of N. H. Municipal Trust, to discuss their policy for Workers' Compensation. Their program pays dividends quarterly on money paid into the Trust. This policy provided a great reduction in premium, therefore the Selectmen have decided to transfer our policy to the N.H. Municipal Trust.
