5. Review of Procedures

Discussion began regarding if a person needs to be a resident of Newtown to file a complaint with the Board of Ethics. It was decided that the source doesn't matter, however, specificity is necessary in the initial complaint.

The Board will continue to work on putting together something to go on the town's website for how a person should file an ethics complaint. Procedures will continue to be reviews and refined for better clarity for the future.

The board did not meet in Executive Session
