North Beach Neighborhood Watch (NBNW) Monthly Email Update June 2015

As with many successful programs, operations must change and adjust with the times if the program is to continue to function. In today's world, with social media, internet, and email, virtual contact is king. Based on the feedback received from our special event, email responses, and the monthly meetings of the North Beach Neighborhood watch committee, the following changes will be taking place.

We will no longer meet the 3rd Monday of each month. We will continue to be present at the monthly Town Hall Meetings that are held the 2nd Thursday of each month. We will receive the sheriff's report and information first hand, as well as be a part of any discussion that takes place regarding incidents that may have occurred. We can share issues brought to the attention of the NBNW during the public comment segment of the meeting. NBNW committee members will be available to discuss items after the council meeting ends if needed.

In addition, we have been able to reach out to more residents, discuss more concerns, and grow the program membership more than 30% (after just 2 events) by participating in the Friday Night Farmer's Market once each month.

We feel these two meeting times will best serve the future of the program.

There is a revised calendar below. Details for upcoming events can be found here in the email each month. July 9th, we will attend the Town Council meeting, 7 Pm, at the Town Hall. Visit our table Friday, July 10, at the Friday Night Farmer's Market.

Some of the feedback received indicated an interest in future special event speaker meetings and meetings geared towards youth. If you are hosting a group event, and you would like guest speakers regarding personal and property safety, drug education, or youth programs, contact us through this email site and we will arrange guest speakers for you through the NBNW program.

The North Beach Neighborhood Watch is a group of North Beach residents that assists in crime prevention through information sharing. You can take part simply by;

- ✓ Reading the monthly email.
- ✓ Sharing your thoughts and ideas.
- ✓ Providing information regarding incidents that occur.
- ✓ If you see something, say something

We are neighbors looking out for neighbors

Tip of the Month

"Often citizens fail to call because they are not sure if what they see is suspicious. If you are in doubt, call the police immediately. Don't wait to talk it over with friends or neighbors. Valuable police response time is lost this way. If something makes the hair on the back of your neck stand on end, gives you a strange feeling that you just can't put your finger on, or just makes you nervous or apprehensive, call the non-emergency number and let us check it out."
