North Beach Neighborhood Watch (NBNW) Monthly Email Update October 2015

HAPPY HALLOWEEN! Kick your neighborhood watch skills into high gear tonight. First, Show your “Spirit” for the kids. Turn on the porch light, decorate, and enjoy the kids in costume. At the same time, keep an eye out for the kids. Be sure to keep open flames (such candles in pumpkins) away from any area where kids will be walking. After the trick or treat ends, be aware of any pranksters who may be strolling throughout the evening. Older kids will probably be going to and from friends’ houses for parties or just to hang out, expect to see them walking by (keep any eye out to make sure they are safe as they make their way home). At the same time, if you see anything unlawful going on, such as people where they should not be, do not hesitate, call the police.

Halloween decoration judging will take place between 6 pm and 8 m tonight. A prize will be given to the home and business with the most Halloween Spirit. Prizes will be awarded at the next town council meeting 11/12/15.

To CELEBRATE the past year’s accomplishments and acknowledge those who assisted the program throughout the year, we will be meeting for “Cocktails and Conversation” Tuesday, November 17th, 7 pm, at Neptune’s (corner of 1st St & Chesapeake Ave). We hope you will join us! {Dutch treat – separate checks}

Remember, if you see something suspicious, do not hesitate. Call the police.

Thank you for helping to keep North Beach a great place to live!
