North Beach Neighborhood Watch (NBNW) Monthly Email January 2016

The North Beach Neighborhood Watch is the residents of North Beach that assists in crime prevention through information sharing. Please take part by;

- ✓ Looking out for your neighbors
- ✓ Reading and sharing the monthly email, and sharing your thoughts and ideas with the NBNW.
- ✓ Providing information regarding incidents that occur.
- ✓ If you see something, say something

We are neighbors looking out for neighbors

In the news, the Sunrise Garden was vandalized earlier this month. Thanks to the video cameras and the great work of the Twin Beaches Patrol, the vandals were quickly apprehended! See the attached copy of the Sheriff's report for other incidents that occurred last month in the beach.

Below are some of the goals we have going forward in 2016, for the NBNW program

- Continue to grow our membership by attending community events and being present at the Farmer's Market at least once per month throughout the 2016 season;
- Add the "good neighbor" segment to our monthly email. Let us know about your great neighbor, why he/she/they are great neighbors, and we will publish a new story each month about the great neighbors of North Beach.
- Research programs and provide input where we can make a difference in our town.
- Become members of the National Neighborhood Watch for more resources and information to enhance our program.

As always, we appreciate any thoughts or ideas you would like to share.

Remember, if you see something suspicious, do not hesitate. Call the police.

Thank you for your continued support. You make North Beach a great place to live!

Thought of the Month

Do you make it obvious you are away from home?

Are there uncollected newspapers left in the front of the house?

Is the porch light on all day and all night for days?

Do you advertise on Facebook or other social media sites when you are away on vacation?
