Responded for an active alarm coming from the service department. Checked the exterior and found everything secured. Located decorations hanging from the ceiling in the service department which was mostly likely causing the alarm to go off. No key holder responded. Cleared. Within 2 minutes of clearing, dispatch informed that the alarm was going off again. I then called the business manager, Delvento, who provided me with additional phone numbers to call for a key holder to come out and remove the decorations. All were unsuccessful. Delvento will be removing the decorations in the morning.
