I received a call from James DeGroat of Asplundh Tree Service. He wanted to make us aware of a verbal confrontation he had with one of our residents. A week or two ago an Asplundh crew parked in front of a house on River Rd. for their lunch break 2 days in a row. They were confronted by the homeowner who complained that he doesn't want them there. They complied and left the area. Today they drove through River Road to turn around. This prompted the resident to call James and complain that the crew was "stalking, harassing, and intimidating him" bc he complained about them being in front of his house. James stated that the caller was screaming and yelling at him. He was concerned enough about the resident's behavior that he wanted us to know this had happened. He also stated that he has told his crews to stay away from River Road to avoid any further confrontations.
